PATRON'S MESSAGE

It is a matter of great pride that the inaugural issue of Pakistan Journal of Cardiovascular and Thoracic Surgery is at hand. The untiring efforts and dedication of the editor and editorial board is to be lauded. They deserve special congratulations for their first successful triumph and, I look forward for their continuous co-operation to achieve many land marks and honour in years to come. This journal will provide information and instructions to the cardiologists, cardiac surgeons, thoracic surgeons and anesthetist. I wish Pakistan Journal of Cardiovascular and Thoracic Surgery a long lasting success.

Professor Muhammad Rehman FRCS, FCPS (Hon.)
